The Challenge

K Lounge wanted to increase awareness around ongoing retail offers while driving more footfall and improving daily sales across its multi-brand fashion outlets. The campaign also aimed to encourage customers to purchase more per visit and increase the average order value.

The Approach

Swytch Studio curated and managed an influencer-led retail activation campaign by onboarding relevant fashion creators, planning offer-focused content, coordinating store visits, and delivering authentic social media coverage that highlighted the brand's collections and promotional offers.

The Outcome

The campaign generated strong local awareness, increased customer engagement around promotional offers, and contributed to higher daily store sales and improved average order value through creator-driven retail marketing.
